SHERIFF OF NEW YORK TAMES L.W.W. AGITATOR.

Giovannitti Puts the Soft Pedal on His Harangue About Sabotage.

Three Riots in Gotham Keep the Police Busy Day and Night—Women Join Men Strikers in Attacks on the Officers—Over a Thousand Garment Makers Involved in Violence in Cooper Square.

[BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.]
NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 20.—[Special Dispatch.] The meeting at Carnegie hall, called by the International Social Society, was originally for the purpose of setting forth different kinds of socialism and industrial unionism, but it was almost entirely over an evening of anarchy by Sheriff James Harbinger, U.S. Marshal, who presided; Frank Dunn, Joseph Elmer, Arthur Giovannitti, Max Hayes and Upton Sinclair might have had their regular addresses on other topics, but every one of them had to pay their respects to the sheriff.

SABOTAGE.
Giovannitti, pale, spoke on "Sabotage," but he very skillfully concealed his advice he might have to give by using the audience about the two sides of it. He said that it was not to come in this country, since the courts had forbidden the boycott, making, since they threatened with electric chair men who dared to advise workers, since injunctions against labor unions were used, free speech and a few other things. It was the surest, quickest way of winning about the industrial revolution which would end in the workmen receiving the benefit of all he produced.

He did not mind saying that he was a violent advocate of the first kind of sabotage and that was the kind the workmen carried their program in proportion to the wages they produce only what they are paid in. If the wages go down, the program goes down. He tried to say the same kind, which he declared as impairing the efficiency of the machine. He called it the "sabotage of machinery" as that was the result of strikes.

"PETTICOATED CAVALRY" IN PARADE OF WOMEN.

[BY A. P. DAY WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Miss Inez Milholland of New York City, designated as "the most beautiful girl in the suffrage movement," is to lead the suffragist parade March 2, it was announced today. Wearing the livery of a herald of medieval times, Miss Milholland will lead down Pennsylvania avenue ahead of a woman's band, which, in turn, will lead a troop of "petticoated cavalry." Arrangements were made today to have several hundred striking women garment makers from New York and Baltimore march in tatters and rags behind a float depicting the office of the "sweat shop" system.

FRENCH VILLAGE STIRRED BY DEATH OF ABBE.
Bishop Had Decided to Transfer Clergyman to Prevent Scandal When Body Is Found With Bullet in Head—Police Investigate Story That He Killed Himself.

[BY CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
PARIS, Jan. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A great sensation has been caused at Agen, near Toulouse, by the death of the abbe Chenevier, curé of the parish of St. Hippolyte, who was found in the apartment of Alice Croisy, one of his parishioners, with a bullet in his forehead.

The relations between the priest and the girl have been a matter of common knowledge in Agen. To prevent scandal his bishop decided last Tuesday to transfer the priest to Montastruc.

The news of the abbe's death was conveyed to the police by the girl, who declared that the priest had shot himself. It is now alleged by the police that the fatal shot was fired from some distance at the abbe.

She confessed long ago to friends that she loved the abbe. Since the death of the abbe she has put on deep mourning.

JUDGE VOUCHES FOR ICE CREAM.

SUPREME JUSTICE BEATY TESTIFIES FOR WING LEE.
Head of California Judiciary Assures Police Court Product of Chinaman Is Up to Standard and Also Recommends His Corn Bread. Case Is Dismissed.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
SAN FRANCISCO, Jan. 20.—Chief Justice Beatty of the Supreme Court of California appeared in the police court today as an expert witness on good and bad points of ice cream. He was called to testify for the defense in the case of Wing Lee, a young Chinaman accused of having sold ice cream not containing the required percentage of butter fat.

"I have eaten Wing Lee's ice cream many times," said the Chief Justice, "and I can assure the court that it is well up to the standard. This defendant was once a cook in my home, and I know whereof I speak. I can also recommend his corn bread."

The Chief Justice also vouched for the reputation of Wing Lee and the case was dismissed.

Hard Fight to Save the Tariff.

Californians Tell Congress that the Fate of Industry Is Involved.

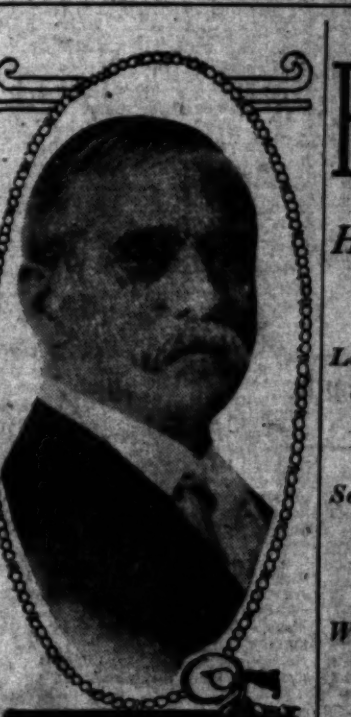

Democrats Are Still Bent on Giving All the Favors to Sicilians.

Duty May Be Put Back to a Cent and the Orange Rate May Suffer.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
WASHINGTON BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The attack on the lemon tariff was opened this morning by the Italian Lemon Importers organization, known as the New York Fruit Exchange, which insisted that the California growers constitute a trust. The battle was continued this afternoon by the Box Shook Makers of Maine, who alleged through their committee man, that the levying of the 13-cent duty under the Payne-Aldrich bill had caused the Sicilians so much resentment that they had refused to buy any more Maine lemons, but had transferred their trade in that commodity to Austria.

Charles M. Stewart, the box shook selling agent, complained that once Maine had received as much as $100,000 a year for box shakes, and now received nothing. He was quite willing to have the extensive lemon industry of California crippled on account of the measly hundred thousand. He declared that he, himself, had written the paragraph in the tariff bill affecting the box shakes which gave 25 per cent duty, although he gets less from Canada free of duty.

of the witness, who finally was made to see his presumption in alleging that he had written an item into the tariff schedule when only Congress can do that. But Stewart said he had been obliged to pay 50 and 60 cents a dozen for lemons in Bangor since the Payne bill became a law.

"Don't you know," asked Representative Needham, "that there is no duty on citrus fruit in Canada, and that the selling price there is as high as it is in this country?"

Stewart said he didn't know; that he didn't have money now to go there.

NEEDHAM AS SHYLARK.
"You can write to some friend for information," said Needham, "and I will send you 2 cents for postage."

"I understand," said Congressman Hill to the witness, "that you want lemons to come in free if they are packed in boxes of American make, and to pay one-half cent per pound if in boxes of foreign make, while you enjoy a tariff of 50 per cent on shakes."

Witness Tells of Gosny Which He Says He Considered Unwarranted.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]
TAMPA, Fla. (Fla. Journal Special Dispatch.) Mrs. Charles Victor Hall of Los Angeles, her husband, a pretty French girl whom he picked up on a street in Paris, while stopping there on his tour around the world that he came to Tampa with her and thus constituted statutory grounds for divorce, are allegations, which Mrs. Josephine Hall attempted to prove in depositions taken here today.

Mrs. Hall, in addition to seeking a divorce, asks that her husband be restrained from disposing of any of the property he has, alleging that Mrs. Josephine exercised an undue influence over him and that she may induce him to take the proceeds of an undivided sale and proceed to parts unknown.

The taking of the depositions was concluded today. The hearings have been in progress ten days, the guests set society feeling livid.

BLOCKED BY A MOB.

New York Eager to See Miss Gould.

Entrance to License Clerk's Window Is Jammed With Humanity.

Bride Arranges to Feast the Poor on the Day of Her Wedding.

Walters in Dress Suits Will Serve Humble Men and Women in Gotham.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 20.—[Special Dispatch.] A rumor that Helen Gould and her fiancé, J. Finley Shepard, were coming down to procure their marriage license, New York City Hall Park shortly after noon today and stilling crowds formed at the entrance to the marriage license bureau at the west end of the City Hall and waited there for nearly two hours. At the bureau the rumor, which could not be accounted for, was said to be wholly without foundation. The man and woman and children outside were told so, but they thought it was a hoax to get them to go away so they stayed.

The crowd pressed closely about the entrance and the City Hall. Women stood on tiptoes trying to catch a glimpse of the party, through which Miss Gould and her fiancé were likely to pass. Men and boys climbed upon the fences and actually so each other's heads to see the party. The clerk at the marriage license bureau was at a loss to account for the origin of the rumor which had assembled the multitude. They asserted that they had no information which would lead them to believe that Miss Gould and Mr. Shepard were procuring their marriage license in New York City, as Miss Gould may claim residence in Livingston, Westchester county, and may therefore get the license there.

GUEST LIST SECRET.
The wedding will be as remarkable as that of Miss Gould's sister, Anna, to Count von Castellane, some years ago. The Castellane wedding is remembered for the lavish display and the pomp and circumstance. The wedding Wednesday will be long remembered for its simplicity and privacy. Not even the list of guests will be made public and the only presents to be mentioned outside the family circle will be those from the army and navy.
Arrangements for the wedding were completed today. Shepard said none of the details would be announced until Wednesday morning. It was learned there will be no usher and that the wedding would take place in the dining-room of Miss Gould's home, Lindhurst, Tarrytown.
The only guests will be members of the Gould family, the Shepard family and a few close friends.
One of the most closely guarded secrets connected with the wedding is

FIRST IN THE JOURNALISTIC PROCESSION.

During the Year 1912 the Los Angeles Times Printed Four Million More Lines of Advertising Than Any Other Newspaper on Earth, and Surpassed Its Own Previously Unequaled Record by Over One Million Lines.

The newspaper advertising record for another year has been written. The official returns for 1912 are in, and, for the seventh consecutive year, The Times has won the pennant from all the newspapers in the United States.

The Times' advertising record for 1912 has never been equalled, in any single year, in the history of the world, by any other newspaper at home or abroad.
The reason for The Times' year in and year out world-wide advertising supremacy is that the superior quantity, quality and purchasing power of its circulation among people who do things with both brains and brawn—people who are building an empire in the Pacific Southwest—make its advertising columns more profitable to its patrons than those of any other newspaper in the world.

The following figures, which are absolutely accurate, were carefully compiled by the Mail Order Journal, of Chicago, for the twenty-eight leading newspapers of the United States.

CAMPAIGN KILLS HER.

Woman Elected Lawmaker in Utah Dies of Nervous Prostration.

(A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.) SALT LAKE CITY (Utah), Jan. 20.—Mrs. Edith Ellerbe Read, member of the lower house of the Utah Legislature, died today from nervous prostration. She was elected on the Republican ticket at the last election and her condition became critical after an exciting campaign. Mrs. Read graduated from Leland Stanford, Jr. University, where she took a prominent part in literary and dramatic work.

where the honeymoon is to be spent. It was said at the office of George Gould's brother and sisters have been told where the wedding pair will go. It also became known there would be no pictures published of the bride. This was announced by a newspaper editor. He said he was sorry no pictures would be given out, because many times one of his fiancées had been taken. He said, however, that Miss Gould had determined years ago that no photograph of her would ever appear in the columns of a newspaper. He added that her fiancé, Mr. Shepard, was in the army and navy and other phases of American life would be less prominent personally, even if just as active, than heretofore.

Miss Gould, her two little nieces, who were to be flower girls at her wedding, her fiancé and Mr. Shepard's brother will go to Lindhurst tomorrow for the final preparations for the wedding at 12:30 Wednesday.
Two important details are to be settled tomorrow. The marriage license must be procured and the wedding is to be rehearsed. Miss Gould and Mr. Shepard will get their license, probably from Robert D. Dyer, the City Clerk of the town of Greenburgh. It is possible that they may drive up to Cashwood's office in the Music Hall building or possibly Mr. Dyer will be asked to come to Lindhurst.
Much interest is being taken in the procuring of the license and to prevent notoriety if possible.
The obliging Town Clerk will go to Lindhurst. By carrying along his seal he can have the license as locally as in his office.

THE REHEARSAL.
The hour of the wedding rehearsal took place today. It is believed it will take place in the afternoon. Reporters from New York have been busy all day placing plants and flowers in position for the wedding. It is expected that the rehearsal will be held at the home of the bride, Lindhurst. The Rev. Daniel Russell of the Irving Presbyterian Church will also be on hand. After the rehearsal there will be a dinner at Lindhurst, and it is probable Shepard will remain all night so as to avoid an early trip from New York Wednesday.
The wedding will be a silver affair. Only seven or eight guests are to be present, including the members of the Gould and Shepard families. One of the presents Miss Gould will receive tomorrow will be a silver clock, the gift of 257 guests of her school, who contributed 10 cents each. It is suitably inscribed.
It was announced that Miss Gould on the evening of the wedding will give a dinner to 1000 homeless and destitute men in New York, in which all the accessories to a first-class dinner function will be in evidence, such as dress-suit waiters, finger bowls, etc.

WINTER'S COLDEST SNAP RUSHING UPON CHICAGO.

Following on Heels of Blizzard Which Has Paralyzed Street-Car Traffic and Sent Hundreds to Poor Offices for Aid, Windy City Awaits Lowest Temperature of Season.—Vessels Have Terrible Experiences.

(BY WIRELESS LINE TO THE TIMES.)

CHICAGO BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 20.—[Special Dispatch.] Close upon the heels of a blizzard that held Chicago in its grip today, the record cold wave of the winter is rushing upon the city tonight.

Prof. Henry J. Cox of the government weather bureau predicts that the mercury will dive for the zero mark before morning. A toboggan of some 20 to 40 degrees in temperature is predicted. With it the aephyra which have been threatening a premature spring will start for their goal of summer.
Winter, held back by a conflict between an eastern "high" and an Atlantic "low," quieted the explanation of the weather experts in Washington, has been chasing itself in circles about Medicine Hat, while the United States has been enjoying a frosty December, and January which brought out buds and blossoms in many places. Incidentally winter was gathering strength. It is said to be a wide swath on his present campaign.

ACCIDENTS IN SNOW STORM.
The day's snow storm caused numerous accidents, delayed traffic—elephant, steam railroad and surface—and brought about a loss of thousands of residents of Chicago and vicinity.

Walking proved almost impossible in some parts of the city. A forty-mile wind swept around corners, carrying pedestrians off their feet and causing much discomfort. Horses also felt the force of the wind and many minor accidents were recorded. Near some of the Loop corners policemen were stationed to keep the traffic away from dangerous spots. In other places they assisted women and children to cross the wind-swept streets. Progress on the city's automobiles was hindered and thousands of traffic were frequent.

IDLE MEN PUT TO WORK.
Thousands of idle men were put to work in the Loop and various sections of the city sweeping the streets and walks of snow. Extra gangs of men were sent out by railroads and traction lines to keep the tracks clear. Prof. Cox of the Weather Bureau, in a statement that followed the zero prediction said:

Some of the coldest Februarys on record have been preceded by weather such as we have been having, or worse. That would indicate that we are in for a very cold winter. The snow will continue until we have three or four inches on the ground.
The city awaits to see the heaviest snowstorm of the season this morning. Traffic scheduled on the city's lines will be abandoned by the time the rush of crowds for the loop began. Thousands of persons employed in the downtown district are in their journey and arrived from fifteen minutes to one hour late.

VESSLS IN DURE PERIL.
(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] More stories of the wrath of the winter hours in peril sufficient to make the hearts of strong men weak came in with the White Star liner Baltic, two days late. The big ship had been pumted like a football all the way across the southern track, from Queenstown to Liverpool.
Capt. Howarth found his ship running square into a vicious sea before the hills of Ireland were behind her, and from that day, January 18, all the subtle cruelty of the western ocean was vented upon the big liner. Last Tuesday and Wednesday, when the wind from the north-east had turned up to a ninety-mile gale, and the face of the ocean was contorted into parallel ranges of watery mountains, the Baltic had to weather while passing through the narrow channel of the English Channel, and take the force of the tempest squarely over her bows.

SAW WHALE TOSSED.
On the night of January 18 the few passengers who remained in the upper saloons saw a whale spout. The whale was tossed like a sardine spew from crest to crest of the water cliffs, seemingly utterly unable to navigate against the whip and drive of the hurricane.

Capt. Inman Sealby, one of the passengers, who was in command of the White Star steamer Baltic, reported that it was a collision with the Florida off the Long Island coast four years ago, declared that never in his experience had he seen a storm as that of the Atlantic. The ship was driven from Marmelion, had five days of strong gales and extremely rough weather while passing through the narrow channel of the English Channel, and take the force of the tempest squarely over her bows.
The French liner Caroline arrived from Havre, via Halifax, N. S., from January 8 to 10 the steamer encountered terrific gales, and was swept by enormous seas, and a great part of this time had to be spent in January 8, while the steamer was rolled about as though one of the boilers blew out, and when the ashpan door opened the engine-room was flooded with hot water and live steam. Seven men were badly scalded and burned.

The oil tank steamer Charlois arrived today from Rotterdam via St. John, N. P., after a stormy voyage. Leaving the English Channel in stormy gales, she carried them to the Flemish Cape, when, on January 6, the wind assumed hurricane force.

Registered As Niece.

that Mr. Hall came to his hotel in the latter part of last April. He engaged the handsome suite in the hotel and registered himself and niece. Connecting rooms were given the couple, Mr. Stanford testified. The couple seemed thoroughly congenial and went for long walks and rides. Mr. Stanford admitted that there was some gossip at the time but that he saw nothing to warrant it.

HOME ON THE BOULEVARD.

After leaving the Tampa Bay Hotel, the couple occupied a handsome home on the Bay Shore boulevard, the most restricted residence section of the city. To those with whom he came in contact, Mr. Hall introduced the young woman as his niece. They had a housekeeper, but she cannot be found.

All the time that Mr. Hall was here, Mrs. Hall alleges in her declaration, she had detectives watching him and she had constituted grounds for divorce. Mrs. Hall's declaration that Mr. Hall introduced the young woman as his niece, but that he was in the house on the boulevard.

MISSED THE TITANIC.
Several witnesses testified that Mr. Hall took great pleasure in relating what a narrow escape he had from being one of the victims of the Titanic disaster. He had engaged passage on the White Star ship of tragedy, but was delayed in Paris, taking the next boat over.

An acquaintance down Hillsboro Bay in a chartered yacht, on board of which were several jolly couples, was stressed in Mrs. Hall's allegations, that the vessel was sought to prove by the depositions.

Capt. Quinn, of the "Platner," the yacht said to have been chartered May 1, testified that he remembered a trip similar to the one described, but that he did not remember the names of any of those on board.

"Was it a Sunday-school picnic?" asked Col. Peter O. Knight, for the plaintiff.

"Well, not exactly," smiled the captain.

"How long were you gone?" asked the counsel.

"We went to stay all day, but we lost some of the party when we landed at St. Petersburg early the following morning, the refreshment lockers were replenished and the trip extended until after midnight that night."

LOCKERS REPLENISHED.
Further questioning of Quinn brought out that when the party touched at St. Petersburg early the following morning, the refreshment lockers were replenished and the trip extended until after midnight that night.

According to alleged admissions made by Col. Hall to intimate acquaintances here, he met Miss Suetans while she was peddling postcards on the streets of Paris. He engaged her in conversation and found her unusually bright. She induced her to accompany him on his travels around the world, finally returning to America.

While here Col. Hall was ill about ten days during his stay. The depositions taken here will be forwarded to Los Angeles to be used in the fight for possession of the estate of which Mrs. Hall alleges her money is the basis, and which her husband used in accumulating the property now in his name.

ORDER SOCIALISTS OUT.

Schemetzky Church Gives Mayor and His Followers One Month's Notice to Get Out.

(BY FEDERAL (WIRELESS) LINE TO THE TIMES.)
SHEMETCHKY (N. Y.), Jan. 20.—[Special Dispatch.] One month to vacate the First Congregational Church property was last night served on the pastor, the Rev. Dr. George L. Lunt, by the Schemetzky Church, which is a branch of the Russian Socialists.

The church, which was known as the First Church, was known as the people's church. This action was taken at a largely attended meeting of the original members of the First Congregational Church at which the resolution was adopted granting the Russian Socialists permission to use the church for religious purposes until February 22. Its adoption was unanimous.

When the first CHICKERING PIANO was made the West was almost an untrodden wilderness

When the house of Chickering & Sons was founded, James Monroe was President of the United States. This is the piano known to our fathers, our grandfathers and great grandfathers. Associations and fragrant memories cluster about it; from the first it has been sought after, honored and esteemed, AND ALWAYS BECAUSE IT WAS THE BEST. Is it any marvel, then, that it occupies the proudest place today?

The Chickering Piano has been the choice of discriminating musicians and musical people for close upon 90 years. Its position of supreme honor is GREATER TODAY than ever before.

We are sole agents for the Chickering in Southern California. At the present time we are showing a really remarkable collection of these instruments in both upright and grand form. While many woods and finishes will be found in our stock, at the same time we gladly take orders for Chickering in special designs and casings to suit varying needs. Our plan of easy payments will be extended to every Chickering Piano in the store.

COMMERCE COURT
REVERSED AGAINSupreme Justices Rule for Lower Freight Rates.But the Theory of Absolute Jurisdiction Is Lost.Letter from Archibald Appears on the Records.(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Reversing the Commerce Court the Supreme Court permitted the order of the Interstate Commerce Commission for reduced rates from New Orleans to Mobile and Alabama interior points to stand.

The theory advocated by the government that the Interstate Commerce Commission has absolute jurisdiction over evidence in rate cases to the exclusion of the courts, particularly the Commerce Court, was struck down by the Supreme Court in deciding that the Commerce Court had a right to examine a claim that there was no relevant evidence presented to the commission upon which it had based its order in this case.

Justice Lamar, in announcing the opinion today, said an examination of the statutes showed that in a case where an unfair hearing had been granted by the commission or where no substantial evidence had been put into the record, the courts could review the commission's order and evidence.

Having held that the Commerce Court could review the order in this case to see if any substantial evidence had been produced, the Supreme Court decided, however, the Commerce Court had erred in finding none had been presented.

ARCHIBALD INVOLVED.
A letter concerning the case, bearing the name of former Judge Archibald, then of the Commerce Court, and written to a railroad attorney at the time the judge was preparing the court's opinion, was made the basis for one of the charges in the impeachment proceedings against him.

The Supreme Court annulled as invalid the "reciprocal demurrage rules" of the Mississippi Railroad Commission, which imposed charges upon railroads for delay in delivery of interstate or intrastate shipments. The decision was based on the fact that the rules did not provide for exemptions in case of unavoidable delay.

of Commerce Councilors.(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Clashing of sectional interests marked the first meeting today of the national councilors of the National Chamber of Commerce, who considered subjects to ferences arose over a request to grant sent the needs of general waterway improvement in the Mississippi Valley.This was opposed by representatives of trade organizations in eastern States, but finally was granted.

Another subject to be brought to the Senate for 1-cent rates on first-class mail matter. The delegates will

That Arrangements Made to Defend

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—Col.
George W. Goethals, chief engineer of the Panama Canal, today told the subcommittee of the House Appropriation Committee framing the sun-

the policy is continued the defenses of the canal under ordinary conditions would be impracticable. He recommended that barracks to accommodate 8000 men be provided near the Miraflores locks.Col. Goethals expects to leave

Supreme Court Holds Woman May Recover Damages if She Is Deprived of It.(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE TO THE TIMES.)
WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—A husband's advice to his wife may possibly be of such pecuniary value that the wife may recover damages for loss of it, as the Supreme Court today held in a case decided by the Supreme Court.The court decided also that under the employers' liability act of 1908 relatives of an employee who lives several hours or longer after an accident are entitled to recover from that State if the employee had been killed instantly.Railroad lawyers have sought to establish the doctrine that the statute allowed an employee to sue for injuries and allowed his relatives to sue only if he was killed instantly.
This stand, the court held, was erroneous. State laws, which provide otherwise, Justice Lurion said, must be given effect.

GRIP ON THE COURTS IS AIM OF JOHNSON.

Lisner Lieutenant Introduces a Bill in the California Senate to Put the Appointing Power Largely in the Hands of the State's Chief Executive Eight-Hour Law Extension Looms as a Menace to Fruit Industry.

BY LOU GUERNSEY.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] That the Johnson-Lisner-Flinn clique plans to tighten its grip on the courts of California came to light this afternoon when Senator Gates of Los Angeles offered an amendment to the constitution providing for the appointment of all superior court judges. Under the proposed amendment the Governor, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and Presiding Judge of the District Court of Appeals for the district in which the superior court is located would have the power of appointment. It is designed, according to Gates, to "take the judiciary out of politics."

There are nearly 100 superior court judges in the State and some of them receive a salary each of $4,000 a year. Each of the fifty-eight counties has one or more superior judges who are elected by the people for six year terms.

It has been rumored for some time that the third party bosses were scheming to make the courts subservient to the State machine by making the judges appointive instead of elective. Gates admitted today his amendment will meet with a storm of objection from lawyers throughout the State, but he believes the provisions of his amendment if adopted by the people would tend to elevate the bench and knock the State out of "politics in the judiciary."

It is an administrative measure and a majority of the "progressives" will support it. The Democrats, with but few exceptions, will oppose it.

SYNOPSIS OF IT.

Following is a synopsis of the proposed amendment:

"There shall be at least one judge in each county and as many more as are provided by law or may hereafter be ordered by the Legislature."

"Any person now holding the office of superior judge shall continue to hold the same until the term for which he was elected or appointed expires. Hereafter all superior judges shall be appointed by the Governor, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the presiding judge of the district in which such superior court is located."

"The term of office of judges of the superior court shall be six years from and after the date of their appointment."

"If a vacancy occurs in the office of judge of a superior court, the Governor, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the presiding judge of the district in which such superior court is located shall appoint a person to hold the office. The term of such person so appointed shall be six years from the date of the appointment."

THE EIGHT-HOUR LAW.

A legislative battle, in which the fruit growers and canners' interests will take part, is to revolve about the bill that has been introduced to extend the women's eight-hour law to all classes of employment. That an amendment that will eliminate the fruit canner from the provisions of the measure will be introduced is known, and it is probable Assemblyman Sanborn of Santa Rosa will lead the fight in explanation of an amendment that he will probably introduce to the Long eight-hour bill later today.

"The proposed extending of the eight-hour law for women's employment to fruit canneries will meet with opposition from the fruit-growing regions of the State. Such a measure would seriously cripple the fruit industry. When the fruit picker must be handled without delay, or else producer and canner suffer heavily. Women and girls employed in the canneries handle fruit by piece work, and they prefer it for they make far more money, some of them averaging $1.50 a day, some of them $2.00 a day, than they could at a per diem basis."

"It can furnish a petition signed by women asking to be allowed to continue to work by the piece. There would be just as much sense in an effort to extend the eight-hour law to the tens of thousands of women picking hops during the hop harvest."

UNION LABOR WANTS IT.

That all eight-hour legislation matters are to be bitterly contested, is a foregone conclusion. The agents of union labor declare that the most drastic eight-hour law bill offered will be enacted into law before the adjournment of the Legislature.

The unionists have many of the legislators "bullheaded," especially those with Bull Moose brands. The Johnson-Lisner-Flinn backers are playing to the unionists at every angle. Bull Moose controls at least twenty-five in the Senate and about twenty-five in the Assembly. Flinn holds the balance of power in both Houses and the Bull Moose leaders scrape their vests to him every time he issues an order.

A SCHOOL CIVIC CENTER.

Assemblyman Bloodgood of Inglewood introduced his school civics center measure today and says he proposes to make a hard fight for its enactment into law. His plan, embodied in his bill, is to build, in the country or in the city, a public forum, he proposes to open it up to the public for debates for political discussion and other public meetings at which there is no admission. In addition, his bill provides for the establishment of a primary school, getting a majority of all votes cast for his office, for election at primary of delegates who shall compose the State conventions of the various parties.

A BOND AMENDMENT.

Assemblyman Roberts of Los Angeles offered a constitutional amendment which will permit issuance of bonds in the State to be payable at any place inside or outside of the State. The measure is aimed at a money trust, feared or real, that might prevent the sale of bonds by municipalities in bad times. At present the market is limited by the Constitution and his amendment, if adopted by the people, will not limit the market.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Senator Wright of San Diego introduced a resolution providing for the calling of a constitutional convention. Ratification of that resolution will mean the sale of bonds by constitutional convention in 1915 and the submission of its work to the people at the general election in 1916, or at a prior special election. The framework of the existing constitution was adopted in 1879. Since that time it has been amended until it bears a striking resemblance to the Los Angeles city charter.

The constitution of California is a source of amusement and amazement for constitution authorities and students of government said Senator Wright today.

"Jefferson said the State law should be remodeled every thirty years, and never dreaming of anything like the California constitution. Laymen are beginning to appreciate the peculiarities of our organic law."

A LOS ANGELES BILL.

A bill which will give Los Angeles city an opportunity to undertake certain proposed improvement and development work on the harbor at San Pedro was introduced by Senator Hewitt today.

It authorizes and empowers municipal corporations which own titles of any harbor, or other navigable waters, to establish harbor lines, validating harbor lines heretofore established by the city, it also provides for the free and unobstructed navigation of such waters and authorizes cities to provide for the improvement of such waters to prevent exclusion or obstruction. Hewitt is attorney for the Los Angeles Harbor Board. Hewitt also offered a bill to amend the State constitution to provide for the establishment of a State architectural commission. Both measures have the backing of the leading architects of Los Angeles. Assemblyman Farwell of Los Angeles handled both of these matters in the Assembly.

BIENNE ARRIVES.

City Attorney John W. Shenk of Los Angeles arrived today with a number of bills and amendments for Los Angeles which he will seek to have introduced at this session. Following are the principal matters of legislation which he will ask the Legislature to enact:

A law enabling the city to institute ex parte condemnation proceedings in order to permit the sale of municipal bonds outside of the United States by making them payable in London or some other foreign city.

SENATE REVENUE MEASURE.

SINGLE REVENUE MEASURE.

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] A single revenue measure will come up for passage in the Senate before the thirty-days' recess provided by the Constitution.

A resolution to "take effect" was adopted today. It excepts joint resolutions which is the designation of all resolutions pertaining to Federal relations. This exception was made at the instance of Senator Cammeltt of Jackson, who wishes a crowd his resolution for the recognition of China.

Senator A. E. Boynton of Oroville, President of the Senate, referred to an editorial in a San Francisco newspaper which said the motto of the Progressives was: "To help with the people, and which accused them of bad faith in attempting legislation at the present portion of the session. Similar comment, he said, had been made in other papers."

A bill strengthening the provisions of the law against the malicious use of explosives was introduced by Senator Newton Thompson of Alhambra and is intended to cover such cases as those of the dynamite thrown at the Los Angeles Police Station with an infernal machine.

The Senate chamber was given over to the afternoon session of the road men, who came to protest against any increase in the present tax of 4 per cent on gross earnings.

OWENS RIVER WATER.

The city of Los Angeles finds its intention of supplying itself with water from the Owens River Aqueduct somewhat interfered with by certain persons in Lays who have filed on water power rights in the upper river, and Senator Boyle of Hewitt introduced a bill today which is designed to put an end to their activities.

The bill provides that the state may be sold only within the State.

The men who vex the peace of mind of Los Angeles, Nevada, and have no market for it elsewhere.

Another bill by Senator Hewitt provides for municipal bond elections every two months instead of once a year, if 15 per cent of the voters so desire.

QUARANTINE FUND.

To create a quarantine fund from which depositors of insolvent banks will recoup their loss, relieving bank signers of all liability, is the object of a bill introduced today by Senator Sanford of Ukiah. It follows closely a similar enactment first perfected in Oklahoma. The bill authorizes the state to issue bonds to levy against the capital stock of banking institutions an assessment of 1 per cent of the bank's average daily deposits for the purpose of creating the guaranty fund. Banks and trust companies organized subsequent to the passage of the bill are permitted to the depositors' guaranty fund 3 per cent of the amount of the capital stock of the company as a credit fund. National banks are permitted to themselves of the protection of the guaranty fund, applying with the provisions of the bill.

LOS ANGELES BILL.

Assemblyman Pearls of Los Angeles introduced a bill today which makes available the Torrens act of 1907. It is now more than five years since this law was enacted. Its provisions claim that private interests have succeeded in keeping it in such crippled form as to render it unavailable for general use. Pearls says he expects much opposition to the measure from the title, insurance and abstract companies of the State.

DENY A DEFICIT OF STATE CASH.

Corporations Also Doubt that a Shortage Is Likely.

Ask the Privilege of Examining Board's Data.

Two Days' Grace Allowed to Make Up Their Case.

[BY DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

SACRAMENTO, Jan. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] The representatives of the corporations which appeared before the Joint Committee today to hear corporation complaints against tax increases found that the only data available from the administration standpoint was the message of the Governor in which general statements were made on different classes of property, but in which the Governor made no specific recommendations. They found also a printed report of the State Board of Equalization which was only given out Friday night.

The investigation of assessments of private property was not made a part of that report, the board stating that these investigations disclosed that privately owned property was paying over $1.15 on the $100 of actual value while the corporations with the exception of express companies were paying from 75 cents to $1.00 on the $100.

ON THEIR OWN HOOK.

Some of the public service companies have been conducting an exhaustive investigation of their own on the same general plan but with somewhat different bases from those adopted by the State Board. The board declined to allow the corporations to inspect its figures until the Legislative Committee met.

IN CONFERENCE.

Representatives of corporations paid more than a million dollars of the $9,000,000 annually paid the State by corporations met tonight in an informal conference to discuss and decide upon the best manner of presenting their claims to the Joint Committee.

THE CORPORATIONS AND THEIR REPRESENTATIVES.

California Association of Power Companies and Street Railways, Robert D. Bailey, Walter Gregory and E. W. Freeman; Southern Pacific, Henry C. Booth and David Cowden; Santa Fe, E. W. Camp; Western Pacific, Warren Olney, Jr., and Charles Snook; Los Angeles Railway, Frank Waters; Pacific Gas and Electric, William Cline; United Railroads of San Francisco, Jesse M. Deady; Pacific Telephone Company, B. E. Carroll.

DISCUSSION OPENS.

The joint committee of the Senate and Assembly met in the Senate chamber this afternoon. Thompson and Assemblyman Sutherland, the presiding chairmen, presided. Attorney Devlin opened the discussion stating that the corporations proposed to show that if any deficit existed as a result of the tax increase, it would not be as large as stated. Also that various sources of certain revenue had been omitted from the estimate.

He said that if it was not the intention to attack in any way the good faith of the board's report the corporations, from detailed evidence procured by the administration, would be prepared to show that the privately owned property throughout the State was paying taxes in proportion to its actual value in excess of the tax paid by the corporations. Emphasizing the point that a shortcoming in the board's report was the data accumulated by the board be submitted to the corporation for verification, which he stated that the corporation case could probably be put in in three afternoon sessions.

An address was taken for twenty minutes during which time the representatives of the banks and were informed by them that they would be ready to make their showing on Friday. On reconvening, a motion by Senator Boynton, to postpone the hearing until Wednesday, was carried.

It is understood that unless necessary for extended hearings, the hearings will be held at 2 p. m. each day.

TO INSPECT DATA.

Sensor Gates then moved that the corporations be allowed to inspect the data in the hands of the Board of Equalization. Senator Curtis objected to the form of the motion claiming that the Legislative Committee had no authority over the figures in the hands of the board. Controversy was called on and upon his statement that the board had no objection, the motion was unanimously carried.

The corporations, it is understood, still claim that on the budget submitted by the Board of Control and making reasonable allowance for the State necessities referred to by the Governor in his message there would be no deficit, or at least, a comparatively small deficit. If the rates are allowed to remain as they are, this is said to be because certain available funds and sources of revenue already provided for have not been taken into account in the estimate. It is intimated that the corporations will make no assault on the budget and indulge in no criticism of the administration, believing that the number and the character of the corporations are about the same as in the past, and that the tax experts of the public service companies began at once to check the board's figures with the result of their investigation of values and assessments in all large cities of the State and in twenty-one counties of the State. This, they say, will demonstrate that instead of private property being assessed at over $1.15 per $100 as alleged by the board, it is assessed for no more than the proportion in which corporate property pays taxes under the gross earnings method of taxation, since under the latter method no corporate property can escape taxation.

The companies will urge that they

INAUGURAL BALL DECLARED OFF

Committee Complies With Wilson's Wishes.

May Decide on Public Reception.

Appropriate Money and Make Arrangements.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The inaugural ball, the culmination of the ceremonies incident to the inauguration of President Wilson, will not be given this year in compliance with President Wilson's wishes, the inaugural committee, at a special meeting today, unanimously decided to eliminate the ball.

The committee also decided that the inauguration ceremony at the Capitol or elsewhere suggested by Gov. Wilson as a substitute for the ball, was not within the contemplation of the committee, should one be held.

IT'S UP TO CONGRESS.

The committee would have to appropriate the money for the ceremony, and make the necessary arrangements for it, the committee decided. The committee took the position that the proposed reception ceremony at the Capitol, which was suggested by President Wilson, at a special meeting today, unanimously decided to eliminate the ball.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—The inaugural ball, the culmination of the ceremonies incident to the inauguration of President Wilson, will not be given this year in compliance with President Wilson's wishes, the inaugural committee, at a special meeting today, unanimously decided to eliminate the ball.

WILSON'S WISH.

In the event of a public reception on the steps of the White House, it is that Mrs. Wilson and the President should not be expected to receive the guests. This information was conveyed today to the inaugural committee by the President's wish.

ACCEPTS PROFESSORSHIP.

CORPORATION HE WOULD EARLY IN APRIL.

Withdraw as Member of College and Give First Lectures of Optional Character, to be followed by Regular Course on International Law.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—At a meeting of the Yale corporation today, the corporation formally accepted the appointment of Charles R. Drummond as professor of international law at Yale. The President announced his intention of withdrawing from the corporation when he came to the regular duties of his office.

He plans to come to Yale early in April and will deliver a series of lectures of an optional character. His work next year will consist of a regular course of lectures on the general subject of international law. He also will instruct in the law of nations, but his exact course there will be determined upon.

THIRTY CENTURY OLD.

Drummond's professorship was established in 1611, being named in honor of James Kent of the class of 1681. There have been four occupants of the chair—Chief Justice Roger Taney, of Connecticut, and Henry Dutton, both of Connecticut, and Charles R. Drummond, of New York.

Drummond announced that gifts of more than $75,000 had been made to the University since the inauguration of the corporation. He also announced that the corporation had accepted the resignation of Charles R. Drummond as professor of international law.

WOLF'S ANSWER.

In his answer Wolf stated the case is No. 15,331; that the prosecuting witnesses are Jacob Schaefer, married, who performed the marriage, and George Anterth, witness.

He also stated there were no witnesses summoned to appear. Also that there was no record of annulment of the "Randle-Vance" marriage, which resulted in the bigamy charge; and that the bigamy suit still was pending against him because the motion for a parole from the six months' confinement was not disposed of.

APPRAISING A HUSBAND.

Some Widows Value Them at Only Thousands and Others, Again, at Two Million Dollars.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—Analysis of the numerous suits which widows have brought for damages because of the loss of their husbands in the Titanic disaster brought to light today the striking differences in the monetary values that women placed on their husbands. The suits ranged from $25,000 to $2,000,000, the record high figure being that sued for by Mrs. Henry B. Harris, widow of the prominent theatrical manager. The damages lawyer declares today that the differences in damages sought was due chiefly to the various earning capacities of the husbands, taken into consideration, also the age. The style in which the wife had been accustomed to live was also a consideration.

MELLEN JURY DISCHARGED.

Body Which Indicted Eastern Railroad Officials Dismissed from New England Traffic Inquiry.

NEW YORK, Jan. 20.—The United States grand jury which has been investigating the transportation situation in New England was discharged today. This action was taken because the jury is the same that indicted Charles S. Mellen, president of the New York, New Haven and Hartford Railroad, and E. J. Chamberlain and Alfred W. Smith, president and chairman, respectively, of the Grand Trunk Railroad of Canada, for violating the anti-monopoly law and the right of one of its members to serve was challenged by the defendant's counsel.

A new grand jury to be sworn in tomorrow will continue the investigation, recalling witnesses who testified before the discharged jury.

Meantime the disputed qualifications of the jury in question will be threshed out before a petit jury. In case the contention of the defendants is sustained, it is understood that the government attorneys will ask their readmittance by the new grand jury.

BLAME ROAD FOR WRECK.

Interstate Commerce Commission Assigns Inexperience and Unlighted Switch Lamp as Cause of Fatalities.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 20.—An unlighted switch lamp and the inexperience of a freight train crew are assigned by the Interstate Commerce Commission as the causes of the accident on the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton Railroad at Indianapolis, Ind., on November 13, resulting in the death of fifteen persons and the injury of eleven. Attention is called to the lack of automatic block signaling.

Careless signaling is indicated in another report as the primary cause of an accident on the New Orleans division of the Yazoo and Mississippi Valley Railroad near Monticello, La., on November 12, in which fifteen persons were killed and forty-nine passengers and three employees were injured. No block system was on the railroad.

MEANS TO FIGHT BIGAMY CHARGE.

SAN DIEGO MAN GETS RECORD IN THE CASE.

Writes to Missouri Court Clerk for Particulars as to Marriage for Which He Was Convicted and Finds Proceedings Are Still Pending in St. Louis County.

ST. LOUIS, Jan. 20.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] Charles R. Drummond, the convicted bigamist wanted in St. Louis county for violating his parole, fired through the mails from Lee Apartments, San Diego, Cal., where he is said to be living, a volley of questions, which hit the target, Circuit Clerk C. C. Wolf. The questions follow:

"What is the number assigned to the case of the State of Missouri against Charles R. Drummond upon a charge of bigamy; trial and conviction at Clayton, January 3, 1911?"

"In the above case, whose names as witnesses for the State, if any, were indorsed on the indictment of information, or were any witnesses summoned on the written order of the prosecuting attorney, or on the affidavit of the prosecutor?"

"Who, if any one, was prosecuting witness for the State on said charge and conviction?"

"Has any degree of annulment of the marriage of Carlotta Vincent to Charles R. Drummond (marriage license obtained under names Helen Vance and Charles Randle) been entered? If so on what grounds was same granted?"

"In the event of such decree what will be the cost of certified copies of the petition and any amendments thereto filed in the case of the decree so entered?"

"Is there any suit of any character now pending against me in the Circuit Court at Clayton, Mo?"

In opening fire and closing Drummond was very polite. He stated he would feel greatly obliged if the circuit clerk would obtain the information requested from the records at his earliest convenience, and also thanked the circuit clerk and expressed regret at having to trouble him.

WOLF'S ANSWER.

In his answer Wolf stated the case is No. 15,331; that the prosecuting witnesses are Jacob Schaefer, married, who performed the marriage, and George Anterth, witness.

He also stated there were no witnesses summoned to appear. Also that there was no record of annulment of the "Randle-Vance" marriage, which resulted in the bigamy charge; and that the bigamy suit still was pending against him because the motion for a parole from the six months' confinement was not disposed of.

LATEST SQUEAL OF THE APPEAL.

After More Money from Its Sucker Army.

New Device of Warren for Catching Them.

"Treason" Sheet to Operate in Another Guise.

[Special Correspondence of The Times.]

GIRARD (Kan.) Jan. 12.—Under the combined pressure of an unrelenting and deserved prosecution, undaunted by threats of scandal and violence as vile as they were vain, and of the open contempt and social ostracism its publishers and editors were subjected to here because of the revelations which followed the investigations made by the Federal Department of Justice, that journalistic leech and crusader of the tribe Socialists, the "Appeal to Reason," is now crumbling and in the process of dissolution.

Realizing that he can no longer successfully play the game of milking a misled and besotted following through the printing of such an unscrupulous and scandal-mongering sheet, in the guise of a Socialist party organ, as is the "Appeal to Reason," Fred Warren has now rebaited his hook and cast it in a slightly different direction, hoping that the fool fish will follow.

And in the process of finding new fishing grounds, he incidentally will rid himself of the Wayland heirs, the children of the man who gave him his opportunity, and with whom he now has to share the proceeds from the work of the Appeal Army.

Between now and February 8, "The Coming Nation," a magazine heretofore published in connection with the "Appeal to Reason," and from the same plant, will be moved to Chicago. The "planted" rumor was, when the plan first "leaked out," that it could be printed and gotten out there cheaper than in Chicago, where the Appeal printers for some time have been on the point of striking for an increase in wages, and the mailing clerks are ready to do likewise.

But economy is not the African in the woods. Fred Warren knows that the device of the "Appeal to Reason" has been played, and he has been played, and he wants to get away from it, in appearance at least. Now, several years ago, Fred Warren still worked for J. A. Wayland for a salary, and his share of the spoils didn't satisfy him, he disappeared one day, going across the State line to Missouri, taking with him the valuable mailing list, which comprised the still more valuable roster of the "Appeal Army," the most deluded and fanatical body of men and women on earth—outside of Kansas. The "One-horned Philosopher," Wayland, then knew well that he could not do without the "Appeal Army," or Fred Warren, or both. So he humbly went after Freddie, who meanwhile had set up and started "The Coming Nation" (on the same plan as the Appeal was run), and bought back the Appeal subscription list and army roster, and "The Coming Nation" into the bargain, thereby reaping partly by taking Fred Warren into the business as a partner and Warren has been participating in the big spoils ever since.

And now Freddie is doing the same thing over again. But, according to an old adage, affluence tends to transform the formerly unscrupulous individual into a law-abiding and respectable person, at least in appearance. Besides, Freddie has since acquired the valuable "legal" advice of "Jake" Sheppard, who now conducts a Socialist law school by correspondence. Thus Freddie's method of possession of the Appeal Army's property are this time, as one might expect from a gentleman of means with resourceful legal counsel, most correct and legal. But the result will be the same as they would have been had not Wayland bought him and the subscription list back: Fred Warren will wholly own the business by rights belonging to the Waylands, and will reap all the shekels the "Appeal Army" soldiers produce, instead of only half as he does now. While the "Appeal Army" will be working for "The Coming Nation" of Chicago, the Wayland boys will be left to run the Appeal, which without the "Appeal Army" is as useful as an engine without steam or a bucket shop without customers. Most of the Appeal editorial talent, as Sicker, and "Judson," scheduled to migrate with "The Coming Nation" to Chicago. And as the Wayland boys, who both have given up in luxury and revelry, care not like any rich man's boys, care not a whoop for socialism, and have plenty of money, are known to relish the names and testy and disagreeable reflections through the ill-fame of being the owners of the "Appeal to Reason," it looks as if Fred Warren will "get it" easily. And then the "Appeal to Reason" to which the "comrades" for a number of weeks now have contributed many thousands per week in the shape of life subscriptions at the rate of $5 apiece, with the distinct understanding, printed on the order blanks, that in case the Appeal suspends the life subscriber has not a cent coming back to him, may indeed suspend. Then "Capitalism," its "Government" and "Socialism" will get the credit for the disaster and be blamed for the unredeemed life subscriptions.

Warren's admirable scheme to dump the Wayland interest in the effort to commercialize class hatred and ignorance, was first disclosed by the wife, Mrs. Warren herself, who then and then makes confidential statements to other people, intimate friends, who confidentially repeat them, and so the Times representative was first tipped off as to the great contemplated coup. Subsequent developments fully corroborate the reported intentions of Fred Warren, as the reader may judge for himself from the following quotation from a copy of "The Coming Nation," published January 15, the title page of which announces in display type that "this paper will move to Chicago soon," and which will also show the reader just how Freddie is disposing of the business while the Wayland boys will hold the bag.

ON TO BIGGER THINGS.

That the Coming Nation may live and grow and become the paper that was destined to become it will move to Chicago. For many months it has been hard to tell the fate of this country's daily news and such a paper to give it the support necessary to its production. For a little support would be no support at all. A Coming Nation will out the work of the great artists and best writers without the illustrations and special articles covering the whole range of labor's battle line would not be the Coming Nation at all, but would be only one more competitor in a sea of Socialist journalism already too full.

The few months just past have shown that there is a large demand for such a paper as the Coming Nation. But this demand also showed that such a paper could not be produced in Girard. It demanded more facilities available only in a large city. There is no city in the country where it is either the Coming Nation at all, or a big socialist newspaper such as we have dreamed of.

So we are going to move to Chicago. This move will give us far better typographical and press work than has been possible here. It will give us a chance to publish photographs and illustrations much more than we have been able to do. It will give us a chance to publish photographs and illustrations much more than we have been able to do. It will give us a chance to publish photographs and illustrations much more than we have been able to do.

The move brings us face to face with a new crisis, the sort of crisis that comes in every other business. Our present plant, which is too large for the mechanical facilities of Chicago, it is too small to be moved to Chicago. Printers will understand this when we get a week before being printed. In Chicago the step can be taken with a thousand and sources of material that are unknown or impossible in Girard.

This move brings us face to face with a new crisis, the sort of crisis that comes in every other business. Our present plant, which is too large for the mechanical facilities of Chicago, it is too small to be moved to Chicago. Printers will understand this when we get a week before being printed. In Chicago the step can be taken with a thousand and sources of material that are unknown or impossible in Girard.

We do not want to obtain this money in any other way than by giving ready subscription for every dollar received. We will not sell stock or bonds, nor will we ask for an advance on the money by such methods, when that money has gone we would be better off. But the addition of 10,000 new names to the subscription list will make it possible to utilize the new facilities. It will enable us to produce the greatly improved paper we have dreamed without which progress and growth which is necessary to life is impossible.

Ten thousand new subscribers will reduce the cost of producing each paper, will bring increased advertising, make more socialists, gain new workers and friends for the Coming Nation, and will make it a more powerful force for an enlarged paper, and even better matter than we have been able to do.

These are the things that every Socialist wants. A little added effort at this time and the Coming Nation will give them.

In such an emergency no attempt will be made to tell each worker exactly how to help. Each can help in a different way. On this point the general principle offers that have given enthusiastic satisfaction to thousands who have taken advantage of them.

There is some evidence of years who want some of these books. You want some of them form the general principle offers that have given enthusiastic satisfaction to thousands who have taken advantage of them.

Will you not, today, as soon as you get this paper down, secure at least 10c and mail it to the Coming Nation at first sight.

"The Coming Nation," which always has been subsidized by the Appeal, this being one of the conditions of Fred Warren's agreement under which he returned his valuable service, and the Appeal subscription and army list to him, is still a problem. But it is the same old game in new guise, with a little fiction, a few pictures and some poetry (?) thrown in, printed on better paper, and you pay a bigger price.

And, incidentally, Fred Warren gets away from Harry J. Bone, United States Attorney for Kansas, who doesn't relish, leaving the Wayland boys to face the music.

Chicago Authorities Find They Are Used to Start Fires by Members of the "Arson Trust."

CHICAGO, Jan. 20.—Operations of the alleged "arson ring" and the ingenious employed by its members in arranging incendiary fires were disclosed to State's Attorney Hoyne when he resumed his investigation of the case today.

In one fire under investigation, it is said a score or more of sausage skins filled with gasoline, were strung on wires to start the blaze. These "gasoline sausages" exploded and spread the flames.

We are not "going out of business"—we have not "sold our lease." We don't propose to offer these time-worn excuses in order to justify an Auction Sale. That is not the "Minasian way." Therefore we must sell them quickly and an auction is the surest and best way for all concerned—for you because you fix your own price—you can't pay more than you want to. Most of the rugs will probably go at about one-half their real value. We need the space, you need the rug.

UNBROKEN FRONT FOR INDUSTRIAL LIBERTY.

Brilliant Banquet of City's Merchants and Manufacturers.

Stalwart Association in Annual Gathering Pledges an Unwavering Fidelity to Open-Shop Principle that Has Made Los Angeles Great—Message of Friendship from the San Francisco Fair Legion.

REPRESENTATIVE of mercantile and industrial Los Angeles at its best, the Merchants' and Manufacturers' Association capped seven years of faithful public service, built upon a foundation of rock, the cornerstone of which is industrial freedom, last evening when it closed an old and started a new year of progress, prosperity, and advancement with a banquet at Hotel Alexandria.

Two hundred members of the organization were there, and much of the impressiveness of the occasion came from a consideration of what these 200 men stand for; in contemplation of their loyalty to the city they support, and in the success of their stalwart stand for a free and independent community of labor wherein every man is entitled to and receives the reward of merit which he himself commands, free from the yoke and thorny crown of industrial captivity.

A pleasing, spontaneous and touching feature of the occasion was the announcement by J. G. Koepfli, the first president of the association of testimonial contributed by members of the M. & M. to its faithful secretaries.

The whole evening was typical of co-operative spirit which has dominated one association from its inception, and the healthy, well-nourished condition of what has been called "the city backbone" was demonstrated in the encouraging and optimistic reports of its officers, and in the "all together" boosting talks of the speakers, all of whom, whether from home or abroad, recognized and paid tribute to the splendid body of citizenry represented.

It was about 10 o'clock before the interest of the diners in the Epicurean programme passing in review before them for two hours was diverted to the intellectual and mental stimulus prepared by the committee having in charge the arrangement of the speaking. It was happily begun by the eloquent and witty toast master, Hon. William Rhodes Hervey, vice-president of the Los Angeles Savings and Trust Company, who introduced as the first speaker of the evening the distinguished president of the association, W. G. Hutchinson.

PRESIDENT'S ADDRESS.
President Hutchinson's remarks were especially pertinent in that they comprised a resume of the work of the association under his regime. "I was fortunate enough," he said, "to be associated and assisted in the work by the directors, who have at all times, and under circumstances, given their full time, energy and advice to carry out the work of our organization."

The prospective strike of the building trades was discussed by the speaker straight from the shoulder. "At the present time," he said, "the industrial situation in this city is very satisfactory. The immense amount of building that emphasizes our growth has given abundant employment to mechanics of all classes at satisfactory wages. A strike of the building trades was inaugurated May last but was quickly abandoned by the labor unions because the rank and file refused to follow the advice of the organizers at a time when work was plenty and wages were equal to, if not higher than those in other cities of the United States. Unfortunately the organizers contemplate calling a similar strike in this city in the early spring and to that end a special meeting of the Executive Committee of the American Federation of Labor will be held here during the third week of next month for the purpose of unionizing this city.

"It is inconceivable that under the favorable conditions that exist here, when mechanics can find employment during the entire year at good wages, an effort should be made to throttle the progress of this city and to force the honest law-abiding members of organized labor to identify themselves with cause or justification. But we have absolute confidence in the integrity and good sense of the rank and file of organized labor to defeat the ends of their walking delegates, and we will direct our efforts to give employment to those who desire to work without regard to their affiliations."

"In this respect I desire to reiterate what my predecessors have so often declared, that our association is not the enemy of unionism and makes no war on organized labor. We stand for the open shop because it gives every honest workingman an opportunity to earn an honest living for an honest day's labor at wages, in many instances, equal if not in excess of the union scale."

"In our dealings with our employees we make no distinction between union and non-union labor, but we maintain the right to hire those in whose ability to do the work we have absolute confidence, whether he be free and independent or a member of a labor organization. There always has existed, and will exist, a friendly feeling of mutual interest between the employer and the employees and we hope conditions will continue harmoniously and satisfactorily unless the agitators and organizers force an issue between the former by a strike or boycott. If any controversy should arise in the near future it can easily be settled by the side of justice, right and fair working conditions and will continue to adhere to this policy under any and all circumstances, upholding the law and the rights of American citizenship."

THE ASSOCIATION.
"Our membership list contains nearly 700 names of the best firms in this city and in view of the valuable services this association has rendered to the city and to the mercantile community we make no distinction between union and non-union labor, but we maintain the right to hire those in whose ability to do the work we have absolute confidence, whether he be free and independent or a member of a labor organization. There always has existed, and will exist, a friendly feeling of mutual interest between the employer and the employees and we hope conditions will continue harmoniously and satisfactorily unless the agitators and organizers force an issue between the former by a strike or boycott. If any controversy should arise in the near future it can easily be settled by the side of justice, right and fair working conditions and will continue to adhere to this policy under any and all circumstances, upholding the law and the rights of American citizenship."

DECORATE FIREMEN.
Brave Men Honored With Medals Presented by Mayor in Presence of Their Chief.
D. S. Wetherbee and H. J. Gates, firemen, were yesterday decorated with Medals by the Mayor in recognition of their bravery in risking their lives to save others at recent fires. Presentations were made in the presence of Chief Eley and officials of the department headquarters on Hill near Second street.

It was at the St. George Hotel fire on the night of November 18, when three persons lost their lives and nine were injured, that Wetherbee and Gates discovered two men unconscious from smoke, lying on their bed. He dragged them to a window where other firemen carried them to the sidewalk.

Gates rescued a woman and her crippled daughter from a rooming house, at No. 198 North Main street on the night of December 24, 1912, carrying them to safety. In so doing Gates was forced to make a second visit to the top floor of the burning building, and fight his way to the sidewalk through smoke and flames. He was slightly blistered on the face and hands.

SHILLY-SHALLY FAILS TO WORK.
Second Darrow Trial Strong Contrast to First.
Judge Conley Handling Case With Expedition.

Examines Talemens Himself; Five Are Passed.
Judge William M. Conley of Mendocino county occupied the center of the judicial forum yesterday when Clarence Darrow, Chicago labor-lawyer, philosopher, and exponent of socialism, was placed on trial in Extra Session Four of the Superior Court, upon an indictment charging him with bribing Robert F. Dale, a juror in the McNamara case.

Unlike the first trial in which Judge George H. Hutton presided, Judge Conley showed he intended to dominate the situation when he preceded the bench. He at once proceeded to shorten the tiresome interregnum of counsel as to the qualifications of prospective jurors by putting some questions to those present in ten minutes he accomplished what it took hours to do in the previous hearing.

In a pleasant but resolute manner Judge Conley told opposing counsel that it was very important to get a fair and impartial jury as soon as possible. Though he did not say so, he evidently referred to day-long examinations that counsel for Darrow used to give the jury in the McNamara case and first Darrow trial. It is possible that a change will be made before the case proceeds very far.

The large attendance yesterday was partly due to the venetian atmosphere to answer to their names. Failure to respond to the subpoena is contempt of court and punishable with a fine. However, several on the panel did not respond to their names when Clerk Thomas A. Shaw called the roster. One was J. V. Vickers, a prominent business man who died a short time ago. Bench warrants were issued for these who disobeyed the court summons.

All calculations as to the length of time required to secure a jury generally fail. The consensus of opinion is that it will take the rest of this week. At adjournment last night, five talesmen were temporarily passed for cause and two caused, one because of important business and the other upon proof of bias against the defendant because of his connection with the McNamara case.

COW SAVES THE DAY.
Frank M. Sanderson, a Whittier ranchman, who is well regarded by both sides, jumped up in his seat just before adjournment to plead with the judge to let him go home. He said she was in the city and without his escort would be obliged to walk home from the Whittier railroad station. He spoke of his neglected farm work, the unutilized cow and hungry chickens. Judge Conley looked at him seriously. "It is not fair to let one or two

The large attendance yesterday was partly due to the venetian atmosphere to answer to their names. Failure to respond to the subpoena is contempt of court and punishable with a fine. However, several on the panel did not respond to their names when Clerk Thomas A. Shaw called the roster. One was J. V. Vickers, a prominent business man who died a short time ago. Bench warrants were issued for these who disobeyed the court summons.

All calculations as to the length of time required to secure a jury generally fail. The consensus of opinion is that it will take the rest of this week. At adjournment last night, five talesmen were temporarily passed for cause and two caused, one because of important business and the other upon proof of bias against the defendant because of his connection with the McNamara case.

COW SAVES THE DAY.
Frank M. Sanderson, a Whittier ranchman, who is well regarded by both sides, jumped up in his seat just before adjournment to plead with the judge to let him go home. He said she was in the city and without his escort would be obliged to walk home from the Whittier railroad station. He spoke of his neglected farm work, the unutilized cow and hungry chickens. Judge Conley looked at him seriously. "It is not fair to let one or two

Judge William M. Conley of Mendocino county occupied the center of the judicial forum yesterday when Clarence Darrow, Chicago labor-lawyer, philosopher, and exponent of socialism, was placed on trial in Extra Session Four of the Superior Court, upon an indictment charging him with bribing Robert F. Dale, a juror in the McNamara case.

Unlike the first trial in which Judge George H. Hutton presided, Judge Conley showed he intended to dominate the situation when he preceded the bench. He at once proceeded to shorten the tiresome interregnum of counsel as to the qualifications of prospective jurors by putting some questions to those present in ten minutes he accomplished what it took hours to do in the previous hearing.

In a pleasant but resolute manner Judge Conley told opposing counsel that it was very important to get a fair and impartial jury as soon as possible. Though he did not say so, he evidently referred to day-long examinations that counsel for Darrow used to give the jury in the McNamara case and first Darrow trial. It is possible that a change will be made before the case proceeds very far.

The temporary jurors left at adjournment consisted of John A. Lyman, Emil J. Robinson, George D. Grant, S. P. Spafford, John D. Delaney, John Farley and S. P. Spafford. It is possible that one or three permanent jurors will be selected out of this number.

With "Wilshire District improvements and advantages"—for less than the price of a high-grade 50 ft. city lot

On Huntington Drive---30 minute ride---$1150 will buy one

Why be content with the confinement of a 50-foot lot when at Michillinda you can buy a little "country estate"—covering 18,000 square feet of ground, under our present building discount offer, for as low as $1150? Michillinda offers you a better environment than the Wilshire district—offers you higher elevation, scenic attractions, mountain and valley views, a wealth of century-old trees, rare flowers, park effects, a beautiful water garden—all the comfort, quiet and privacy of a big country estate—all this at the same price you pay for an ordinary city lot.

Michillinda is another "Oak Knoll"—at prices within the reach of people of moderate means.

Thousands of motorists have pronounced Michillinda to be the finest "private residence park" in America.

Michillinda is really a continuation of the best residential growth of Pasadena. To see the place is to want to live there.

A prominent real estate man said last week, "There's nothing like Michillinda anywhere in Southern California at twice the price."

Forget 50-foot lots—go out and picture how that new home you intend to build, would look on a broad, roomy Michillinda site.

Forget barren, desolate tracts—obtain an ideal setting for your home—where all improvements are actually completed.

To visit Michillinda phone for one of our touring cars—running every hour, daily and Sunday—or motor out via Huntington Drive.

The Balkan war may be resumed in a week. This ought to give the pick of Europe time to spit on his hands.

With the strike of the cooks in New York a lot of folks will be compelled to dine at home. This is hard, very hard.

John D. Archbold is traveling in the Alps. Now, suppose they should be missing tomorrow, who would be under suspicion?

It is announced that Genesee is to dance in a wig and red-heeled shoes. Will the censor of morals please look after this?

Who will do the nightly unweaving of the modistes for the coming summer laid upon copying the gown effects of the Egyptian mummies?

The presents at the Shepard-Gould wedding tomorrow will be worth thousands of dollars and there won't be an old-fashioned feather bed in the lot.

The jack rabbits in some parts of California are reported to be suffering from diphtheria, but it is almost impossible to run them down and administer assistance.

The death of Stephen V. White, known in New York as "Dynamite" White, is reported. Don't you remember the "Dynamite" activity during the Pecker-Turner trouble?

The labor federation leaders in New York ought to pray to be delivered from the I.W.W. The latter are a menace to industrial peace and the unions themselves ought to see to it that they are squashed.

The Department of Agriculture has issued a brochure entitled "A Study of Nuts." Some folks might imagine it refers to some of the Democrats who will fall to get jobs under the Wilson administration, but it has to do with food.

Advocates of a parental local government in Los Angeles are now favoring the erection of a municipal motor plant to furnish limousines at cost for the benefit of the poor of the city. The plant, of course, to be supported by general taxation.

LIFE. Friendship is a puzzling play, And love is stranger still; In both the actors take their way According to Life's bill.

If unattractive to the cast, Or meaningless, or slow, They one or all desert Life's past, And with advantage so.

'Tis well to mingle with old friends, And mellow there with age, But each must play his fated part, For Life is on the stage.

Intensities bring out its loves; The plainer acts, its friends; Ensemble all, we look around, The curtain low descends.

TRACK SEASON OFFERS SOME RARE COMPETITION.

Huns and Huns to Combine for Meet With California Occidental Developing Splendid Material—Kirkpatrick and Beckes Look Like Stars—Oxy Holds First Place—Trojans Have Week of Toil.

BY OWEN R. BIRD.

Occidental-Pomona team three days before this meet, will take all the pep to three counties, and may prove the Bears' Waterloo.

The Tigers have enough fast men to mix with the Pomona stars, to make a very dangerous squad, as the experts from the north will find out when they run up against the local stars. Pomona has just the men to make up for certain gaps in the Tiger line, such as in the hammer shot, two-mile and some few other events. This meet will probably be one of the most interesting in the history of the south, and will be the first time in seven years that the Pomona and Occidental warriors have competed side by side for the same cause.

Good Schedule Without Cards.

The Stanford track team can come or stay away, just as it pleases now, as with the meet mentioned above it means that the southern date book will be filled with "class A" competition from cover to cover.

If Stanford drops out of the U.S.C. schedule, it shows that the Tigers will be taken on for a dual meet March 1 or 15, with also an excellent chance of meeting the Huns sometime later in the season.

However, if the Stanford meet is cut out, the Tiger dual clash with the Trojans is a sure thing. Both colleges are anxious to meet and at the university there are about thirty wild-eyed knights of the clinder, thirsting for revenge, after the disaster of last season. The meet will be on the Highland Park field, if held, and this should place the odds of luck in favor of the Tigers, though with the men and material on hand this season, the Trojans should win by at least ten or fifteen points. But nearly every race should be closely contested from start to finish.

Three Oxy Stars.

There are two men on the Occidental team who are worth watching.

Harry Kirkpatrick, the Tiger Hurdler, shown clearing one of the low barriers. He is much faster this season than last, having developed both form and speed to a marked degree. The dope-artists figure him one of Kelly's most dangerous opponents.

FROM A CARR WINDOW

THIS little Dane, "Kid Williams," who has come out to fight Eddie Campi just hates himself.

Yesterday someone was telling him stories of the wonderful speed of Eddie Campi. They told him how Eddie had made Packy McFarland look like a dud and gave Abe Attell the appearance of being handcuffed.

Williams looked rather bored and said with a yawn: "Good; I like them fast. It gets rather tiresome to fight someone who can't box fast."

The subject of his own fighting record came up and Williams observed wearily: "Oh, yes; I've had a lot of fights. The easiest one I ever fought was with Johnny Coulton, the champion of the world. Yes; that was my easiest fight."

"Hard one? Yes, I have had hard ones. The hardest I ever had was a draw I fought with a boy from own training camp."

He added modestly: "You see I taught him to box."

The press agent has now invaded the boxing game and the result is almost more than we can bear.

The boxing press agent is worse than the managers. After all, the manager is merely an amiable puffed-up person, who is mildly amusing at times. All he demands is to talk about himself.

When he begins, "And I say, says I," you learn to recognize the signal for retreating into the chamber of your own ruminations while he gabbles on unheeded. The mental rest is sometimes quite refreshing.

But the press agent clatters up the mail.

The latest and most distinguished to say his hat into the ring is Elbert Hubbard—the Fra Elbertus of the high brows. It is almost unnecessary to say that the fighter he writes for is Freddie Welsh.

You will remember how Freddie told us he got out of good condition before the Bobbie Waugh fight by sitting into the midnight hours reading Elbert Hubbard's philosophical writings.

CHRISTY IS TOO SPEEDY.

(By Federal (Wireless) Line to the Times.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 20.—[Special Dispatch.] Christopher Mathewson was judiciously declared too speedy by Magistrate Leach at Jamaica today and was fined $10.

The giant pitcher was running his automobile along Hoffman boulevard at Jamaica Sunday evening and was fined by Patrolman Bohan for doing thirty-one miles an hour. He appeared in court today in response to the resulting summons and with the imposition of the fine went a bit of advice not to misplace his speed in the future.

About three weeks ago the same two schools met at Portschade and after a fearful struggle the Mechanics emerged in front with the score about four points in their favor. Since that time both teams have met Hollywood High School, Polytechnic going down to defeat, while the Blue and White just tossed out the football bunch by one point.

On this date it looks as though Los Angeles High should reverse the score of last time and lead the league.

DEADLY RIVALS TO MEET IN BASKETBALL.

This afternoon at the Los Angeles High School the two existing in the city High School Basketball League is to be broken, for the two leading teams, Los Angeles High and their old rivals, Polytechnic, are to meet in the second round of the championship tournament.

REDONDO BEATS EL MONTE TEAM.

The first game of the City Basketball League of Los Angeles county was played Saturday afternoon at Redondo, between the seaside six and the sextette from El Monte, the former winning by a score of 18 to 12, after a hotly contested match.

This is the first attempt at organized play on the part of the Redondo club, but under the able coaching of Fred M. Lee, who coached the bank pennant winners last season, the Mermaids should make a strong bid for the flag. The star of the team, representing the seaside, is the little guard, Miss Lily Hurt.

She covers a world of ground and say forward throwing baskets over her head will sack every point made.

M'GOORTY TO SHOW AGAIN.

Matched to Fight Fred Hicks Tomorrow Night.

Eddie McGoorty is anxious for another bout with Gibbons.

Knockout Brown to Fight Abel Friday Evening.

(By Federal (Wireless) Line to the Times.)

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Jan. 20.—[Special Dispatch.] Eddie McGoorty will be seen in action in the city on Wednesday night at the Fairmont Club, when his opponent will be Freddie Hicks, a battler who has given all the best middleweights in the country more than they were bargained for. McGoorty has not fought since he fought Mike Gibbons in their memorable fight in the Garden. Hicks has heard that McGoorty isn't in the best of form for this bout and if this is true he declares that he will make a show of him.

McGoorty is expected to clinch a match any day with Gibbons for a twenty-round bout before Jim Connelley's club on the Coast. The contest may be held on St. Patrick's day, when both of them ought to be full enough of fighting spirit to make a battle well worth witnessing.

The Colishish boxer says that if he isn't able to close with Gibbons he will sail for Paris, where he has been promised a match with the winner of the Kilmarnock bout.

Before the Garden Athletic Club in Madison Square Garden on Wednesday evening, January 23, Leach Cross will meet Joe Thomas in a ten-round bout at 134 pounds, which is a ring-side. Billy Gibson signed the main event after making Cross a satisfactory offer. Besides this bout there will be another ten-round go in which Leach Dundee will meet some good fighter. Cross is to fight Jimmy Duffy for ten rounds at Buffalo tomorrow night.

Knockout Brown, who will leave for Los Angeles in ten days, where he is matched to meet Joe Brown for twenty rounds at Vernon, Cal., on Wednesday's night. The contest has been matched to meet Jake Abel, the Chicago lightweight, for ten rounds before a club at Atlanta, Ga., Friday night. This will be Brown's last fight before meeting Rivers.

THE ROSE MAID CHORUS DISCUSSES "WHINNIES" AND CUSING.

Actual Conversation Behind the scenes of the girls shown at Mason's, reveals accurate idea of lives of stage beauties—Plenty of hard work as well as fun.

The dictagraph has played even-temper on the chorus! The wonderful little instrument, which records every word that is uttered within the range of the ordinary human ear, invaded the dressing-room of the chorus of "The Rose Maid" at the Mason the other night, and ruthlessly rent the veil from a scene as mysterious and as fascinating as the lives of a Turkish pasha's "cousin boys," which those pretty little girls, Irene Spencer, Kitty Gilbert, Mabel Leon and Peggy Hudson, have been discovered, also the definition of a Johnny, and the difference between a live one and a dead one.

It was Paula Dana who consented to the dictagraph and "gather the dirt," and it was all kept a profound secret from the rest. "I'll put in the Chorus Girls' National," she agreed demurely.

"Gathering the dirt" is chorus girl talk for gossiping.

"Gather the Dictagraph Heard." "Well girls, how is trade?" asks the girl who comes in late.

"Oh, great! I landed a great John. Took me to a shell joint (in disguise) and treated me to candy bird's nest and a glass of wine."

"Had the nerve to ask me to dine with him. I said 'no, thank you'."

"Oh, girls, I got a swell fellow last night who wants to marry me. He's a word stronger than soda water. He's a word stronger than soda water. He's a word stronger than soda water."

to hold the curtain. I can't find my left hip pad."

"Tommy, by the way, is the assistant stage manager, and he couldn't hold the curtain if he wanted to, so Miss V has to fill blithely into the spotlight, not a little on the bias."

From room three is heard "Katharine, lend me some stockings," but there are none to spare, and a quick bespattering of cold cream and powder have to serve for the first act, at least.

Concerning Johnnies. There is a new girl with the show, a Los Angeles girl, by the way, and she came into range of the dictagraph and asked Dana to tell her about the Johns.

"It's strictly against the company rules to flirt, you know, but they tell us to look pleasant, and under the guise of that you can let your eyes twinkle and dangle, right into the face of some smelly chap until he begins to get uneasy, and then you know you have landed him."

"I don't think so," exclaims Belle Irving, who dresses in green. "It's a matter of form you know. You can be quite dignified, and not get fired."

carefully figured himself out to be the lightweight champion of the world.

Freddie's argument is unique, but ingenious.

He says that he became the American lightweight champion of the world by a double route; by the "default" of Ad Wolgast, who was taken sick and was operated upon the day they were to fight for the championship; and by the further fact that he has already defeated Willie Ritchie, the present champion.

Freddie then adds that he became international world champion by defeating Matt Wells, the English champion, and Hughie McEgan, the champion of Australia.

Freddie winds up his story by saying: "If Willie Ritchie wants a chance at the title, he will have to come after me."

When Freddie, the devotee of limpleather philosophy, and Willie Ritchie, the misplaced choir boy of the ring, have a battle, where else could it be except in the cultured, refined atmosphere of the Roosevelt high-brow thought-factory at East Aurora?

With a poet for referee—oh, yes, and some distinguished astronomer for time-keeper.

As to the towel dapper—I don't suppose there is such a base thing as a towel in East Aurora. When Freddie trained there, I dare say they fanned perfumed breezes upon him by some other and more refined medium. I can't believe they used a towel.

Getting down to the rough trade again, Joe Levy wires me that he and Joe Rivers will be home again tomorrow. They are to arrive on the 4:30 Salt Lake train.

I also have a breezy little note from Ad Wolgast at Portland, Or. He says:

"Have been in Portland for about a week, having a pleasant stay. Will leave in a few days for Michigan. Gaining weight very fast; not cold here."

Although Maurice Maeterlinck was a Flemish, he has become was born in France.

In recent years it is at Saint Wan-in the ivy-clad belfry now rendered inaccessible, Maeterlinck has before him the most romantic landscape in Belgium.

of Maeterlinck's music.

The numerous children are pretty and graceful, and the secondary roles are very pleasing.

The "Bluebird" started with a capacity house; there is no doubt that it will be one of the most important dramatic events of the season.

The tremendous demand for seats for the "Bluebird," the delightful

Maeterlinck fantasy, which opened last night, and the enormous demand for seats, led the management last night to announce two special matinee performances, on Thursday and Friday, in order to accommodate the thousands of persons who have been unable to obtain seats.

Before the curtain rose on the first performance last night, practically every seat for the entire engagement had been sold, and as the engagement could not be extended on account of the coming of "Bunty Pulls the Strings," Manager Morosco and the Schubert manager decided that the only course would be the two special matinee performances. The sale of seats for the extra Thursday and Friday matinees will open at the Materlinck Theatre box office this morning.

Mason.

This week will terminate the stay of "The Rose Maid" at the Mason

Operahouse, and the may music and mercy fun of this newest of Viennese operettas will be heard by opera-lovers of Los Angeles for the last time on next Saturday night.

Verba and Leuchter are generally credited with sending a cast for "The Rose Maid" that has been rarely equaled for light opera, both in the direction of singing ability and the fun-making propensities. The piece is gemmed with musical numbers like the dainty "Rose Song," the lilting

"Sweetheart's Wives and Good Fellows," the whimsical "Pagoda" duet, and the "Telephone" number that are really music from the musicalian's point of view, and are well, of a popular nature that assures they are not to be quickly forgotten.

The story is praised as being an unusually consistent one for this form of light opera and as it gives great scope for humorous characterization by nearly every member of the long cast, each member of the organization must be carefully chosen as to type, ability to act and the possession of a real singing voice. Although many of the players were new to Los Angeles theatregoers at the beginning of the engagement of "The Rose

Maid," the names are likely to remain long in their minds as having

A new spirit is apparent in the oil company's "wildcat" prospecting activities in the Fullerton district, despite the fact that two of the most promising wells have been abandoned—the Lafayette and the Toler. The operators are the North American Oil Company and the Mc-

An Unbroken Front.

In San Francisco with skyscrapers in their brains. Those skyscrapers would be realized in steel and stone, and the city would be rebuilt. Neither earthquakes nor fire can burn out the noble thoughts of noble men and women and character will stand when fire and earthquakes have done their worst. San Francisco lives again because she had men and women for citizens who could never die.

"A man needs under his hat first of all, in order to succeed, a mind that has been trained to think truly. There are two reasons why people do not mind their own business; one is, they haven't any mind; the other is, they haven't any business. But God Almighty gave to every man who would accomplish anything in this world a mind that he might think. Every material object that marks our prosperity first existed in the thought of man. Our beautiful parks were first the conception of the artistic mind and soul. Our magnificent buildings were the mental conceptions of architects and builders. Our great commercial enterprises have their beginning first of all in the thinking of broad-minded men of business.

KEY OF SUCCESS.
"No individual can succeed long doing wrong. One of the very first essentials for ultimate success is that a man shall know what is right. Success is always on the side of the man ultimately who does right. Doing wrong is breaking law. A man cannot break the laws of nature without having those laws break him. If he breaks the law of gravitation by trying to fly from off the top of a high building without a flying machine adjusted to the law of gravitation, he will be picked up broken and placed down on the sidewalk at the bottom of the building. He broke the law of gravitation, and the law of gravitation broke him.

"I know of no one thing that we need today more in our public servants for the advancement of our cities in truth and righteousness and integrity than a clear, clean conscience that draws a fine line between right and wrong. It is needed in the business world. It is needed in society. It is needed in politics. Our street car companies put metal consciences upon their conductors. They make them ring up every nickel handed in. Stores put in cash registers and make the clerks ring up in order to keep them honest. Honesty has a commercial value in the eyes of business men when it comes to their clerks. Honesty must be recognized as having a commercial value when relating to the owners of stores and the leaders of our great corporations. If we cannot find men to control our great business concerns and hold positions of responsibility and state who can be trusted for being absolutely honest, we will have to put a metal conscience upon them, and pull the string and ring the bell when we expect them to act in harmony with the highest principles of honor, integrity and equity.

"I asked a bright company of school children once, why it was that when a thief and myself went out hunting with a bird dog, that the bird dog could tell the presence of a quail, and couldn't do it, and my friend and I couldn't do it? A little boy on the front seat yelled so everybody could hear him, 'The dog has brains!'

"When men of thought and moral power have conceived a noble ideal, then they must have courage to put these ideals into execution. Faith is a noble necessity in the progress of the world. Mr. Dooley said that he would rather think all the people would think him a liar than that he would think all the people were liars. Every great and noble achievement the world has ever witnessed has come from the men of faith and courage. The commerce of the world is based upon confidence.

"When I see some man fall and lose his money in some great enterprise, which he called for faith, I look upon him as one of the benefactors of mankind. Some one will pick up the work which he began and carry it on to the point of success. Right is bound to win out in the long run. It's a great thing to look your life in the which is true and right, even if it is unpopular for some day they will crown you a hero in the race. It takes courage though to do it. We have taken a lot of things on faith in this world. An old negro who was called upon to say a few words over a dead friend, looked down into the grave and said, 'Mose, we sure hope you has gone to the place where we 'spects you aint!'

HEARTS UNDER HATS.
"A city needs citizens who have clean hearts under their hats, to love that which is beautiful and good and hate that which is low and evil. The mightiest power in this world is love, and a man will come nearer getting that which he loves than anything else in the world. The only sin that has any power over a man's life is the sin that he loves. The other sins are all give up. All that is beautiful and noble and grand and glorious in the achievements of a city comes from the hearts of men and women who love the great and the good and the beautiful and the true. A spider and a bee will get honey. A business will flourish in the parks and the flower in the city to find a dead rat in the back alley and make off with it, while a bee will fly over all the garbage barrels and back alleys of the city to the park to find the flower and get its honey, and make a bee line home again. A pig will seek the mudhole and wallow in it because he is a pig. The sheep will seek the green meadows and avoid the mudhole because he is a sheep. A city will be great and glorious and beautiful and its achievement will be worthy of the highest praise when a majority of its citizens love that which is highest and best in life and live with all their might to realize their ideals."

BETTER THAN A MERRY-GO-ROUND.

FUGITIVE LEADS CROWD ON A TERRIFIC CHASE.

Escapes Twice from Officer Who Regulations Auto to Catch Him. Man Wanted Hurls Pursuer Through a Plate Glass Window. Landed Through Lack of Breath.

More than a score of citizens, a traffic officer, an auto impressed into emergency service, a colored man who was badly cut by being thrown through a plate-glass window, a motorcycle thought to have been stolen, and a young man giving the name of S. A. Youman, who escaped twice from the officer and once from the negro, were the principals in a spirited chase yesterday afternoon through the business section of the city.

Traffic Officer Britting attempted to halt Youman at First and Broadway for riding against a signal on the wrong side of the street. Youman threw on his power and darted south on Broadway. The officer jumped into a passing auto and gave chase. At Second street Youman turned west and thence north on Hill. At First and Hill Britting overtook and arrested him. While being walked down the hill to the Central Station Youman tripped up the officer, got away from him, struck in the face a citizen who happened to be in his way and ran towards Broadway.

There he turned south, Britting and a crowd in hot pursuit. At Second and Broadway William Croon of No. 1128 East Thirty-third street attempted to stop Youman. The latter hurled him through a shop window. By that time, however, the fugitive was so out of breath that Britting had no difficulty in overhauling him.

At police headquarters Youman refused to give any account of himself or tell where he got the motorcycle, which bears the number "322, Santa Barbara." He will be held on suspicion until his record can be investigated. Croon's wounds were dressed at the Receiving Hospital.

SUPERVISORS' SPECIFIC.

Proposed Cure for Leaky in Securing French Franchises Is More Stringent Ordinance.
Application of the Townsend Vandewater Company yesterday to lay water pipe near Willowbrook inspired a resolution by Supervisor Hinchaw calling for an ordinance which shall forbid the granting of permits to lay water, sewer and gas pipes until franchises shall have been secured.

The company is engaged in the realty business and the Supervisors learned 1600 feet already had been laid without a franchise. The board exacted the payment for the privilege and $100 additional for advertising the franchise for sale.

Hinchaw declared there is a laxity in this class of work throughout the county, due to the rapid growth in all sections and the consequent difficulty in keeping track of subdivisions of tracts.

State Building Trades Council Cheers Convicted Dynamite Conspirator as Spotlessly Innocent.
Olat A. Tveitmo of San Francisco, convict and ex-convict, found guilty in the United States Court in Indianapolis of complicity in a series of dynamite outrages that horrified civilized nations the world over, was held up as an innocent martyr yesterday in the Labor Temple, at the opening session of the State Building Trades Council.

Prosecution of the Western Union Telephone Company and the American Telephone Company—the Bell system—on charges of violation of the Sherman anti-trust law as a result of the merger of corporate interests is scouted as most improbable by H. Consultation with President Theodore N. SUMMARY OF THE DAY.

Stung by the disclosure made through the recent investigation of delays on harbor development work, the Mayor yesterday punched up a special committee of the Harbor Advisory Board and told them that they must get busy at once on reaching an agreement with the Council on the width of the sea-level harbor boulevard between Fourth and Fourteenth streets, San Pedro.

Announcement was made yesterday that an agreement has been reached between the city and George H. Peck as to price of land needed to complete the scheme for opening of the Pacific-avenue boulevard.

General Superintendent Lewis of the Los Angeles Railway Corporation announced to the Board of Public Utilities yesterday his plan for general betterment of the local car service, affecting many lines on which there is the heaviest traffic.

Chief Electrical Engineer Scattergood told members of the Council yesterday that the city is paying too much for its street lighting and he will appear before the Council today to support this position.

Two of the thirty-nine heirs of the late Mrs. Arcadia de Baker have begun suit in the Superior Court opposing the sale of 3660 acres of the Laguna ranch. The property is reputed to be worth $1500 an acre.

"GET BUSY OR—" SAYS MAYOR.

FENCES UP HARBOR ADVISORY BOARD'S COMMITTEE.

Demand that Agreement Be Reached at Once as to Width of Sea Level Highway from Fourth to Fourteenth Streets, San Pedro. Final Report Next Meeting.

That the investigating of delays on harbor development work has "gotten under the hide" so far as the Mayor is concerned was evidenced yesterday by his actions when presiding at the meeting of the Harbor Advisory Board.

The Mayor called for a report of the special committee appointed for the purpose of reaching an agreement with the City Council on what shall be the width of the harbor highway between Fourth and Fourteenth streets, San Pedro. The Council has indicated the plan of Municipal Engineer Howell for a seventy-foot roadway between the streets mentioned, while the Board of Public Utilities has indicated a plan of 110-foot roadway, according to the condemnation proceedings now being conducted. The Mayor is an advocate of a compromise on a width of 102 feet.

Chairman Woodman of the special committee responded to the Mayor's request for a report by stating that the committee reported progress. That was all.

"Progress," cried the Mayor, "I wish somebody would put some dynamite under the whole thing. I tell you, gentlemen, I'm getting mighty impatient and I'm getting over some of these days. Why isn't something done toward settling this dispute? You've simply got to get busy."

Explanations were made that the City Engineer is preparing comprehensive plans for a proposed new layout of the harbor, including the width of the roadway and the width of the boulevard, and that these plans were necessary before an agreement could be reached. City Engineer stated that these would be ready tomorrow, and it was agreed that immediately thereafter the committee would take up the subject of reaching an agreement with the Council and would make its final report next Monday.

AN AGREEMENT REACHED.

President Woodman of the Harbor Commission reported to the Harbor Advisory Board yesterday that an agreement has been reached with George H. Peck as to the land necessary for the completion of the Pacific-avenue boulevard at San Pedro. The city will need 1.13 acres of the Peck land, and this can be secured at the rate of $2000 per acre. It is thought advisable to take also a triangle of land adjoining that will be available later for a depot site, and the total cost will be about $2542. Peck agrees to give a waiver of damages with the sale of this property to the city.

It was decided to make this an ongoing proceeding, with the understanding that no money is to be paid until the waiver of damages from other property owners on Pacific avenue are filed, and that all such waivers must be secured within ninety days. It was also decided that the costs for this land must come out of the $25,000 appropriated for the city share of the proposed opening and improvement of Pacific avenue.

The special counsel stated that forms for these waivers of damages would be ready today, so that the San Pedro committee may begin its work of securing signatures at once. As some of the property owners are now in Europe the ninety days allowed is for the purpose of giving time to reach them.

FOR EXAMINATION.

MAYOR MAKES DEMAND.

The Mayor made a demand yesterday upon the Civil Service Commission that it proceed at once to call an examination for candidates for the position of chief engineer of the harbor of fire alarm and police telegraph, over which there has been much disturbance at the City Hall within the past few weeks.

The Mayor declared that the commission must take steps immediately to provide applicants for this position as the Council has refused to confirm Paul J. Cox, the only man who was certified by the commission, and says that if an examination is called he will be justified in resigning. Frank O'Neill as an emergency man.

O'Neill is serving the city without pay, pending the settlement of the controversy, but the Mayor declares that O'Neill cannot be expected to give his time to preparing plans for a fire alarm and police telegraph system when these plans may be thrown aside later if some other man is appointed to the position.

The Civil Service Commission will take up the subject of calling an examination at its meeting this afternoon.

Better Car Service.
General Superintendent Lewis of the Los Angeles Railway Corporation appeared before the Board of Public Utilities yesterday and announced plans for immediately bettering the car service on various lines and placing numerous new cars in commission.

These improvements include changes from fifteen-minute to ten-minute service on the Eagle Rock and Hawthorne lines; from two and a half to two-minute service on the University line; from four-minute to three-minute service on the San Pedro street line; and a similar service on West Eleventh street, while the former service on the Vermont Heights line will be changed from a ten-minute to a seven-minute service and the West Washington street line will have a two and a half minute service.

Twenty-five new cars are to be put in commission at once, and twenty-five more are due to arrive here soon, while numerous rebuilt cars are being turned out of the local shops for use in this increased service.

Says City Pays Too Much.

Chief Electrical Engineer Scattergood told members of the Council yesterday that the city is paying too much for its street lighting and that the rate should be not more than $5 per light, whereas it is now $4.25. He declared that the city has the right to place the rate on the lighting, and that unless the lighting commission can show that the rate is unreasonable they could be compelled to continue the service.

This statement was brought about when the representatives of the Los Angeles Gas and Electric Corporation presented the propositions under which they would be willing to bid for street lighting for the ensuing year or two years.

The entire subject will go before the Council today for consideration, and Scattergood will be present to state his position.

Main-street Paving.

Five bids were received by the Board of Public Works yesterday for the paving of Main street from Thirtieth place to Manchester avenue—the sixth place to Manchester avenue—the link needed to connect the city's streets with the county highway to Wilmington and San Pedro.

While the bids have been sent to the City Engineer for checking and report, the indications are that the lowest bidder is George H. Oswald, who proposes to do the work for 18 cents per square foot for the asphalt paving, 30 cents per lineal foot for concrete curb, 35 cents per square foot for granite block gutters and 10 cents per square foot for sidewalks, with other specified prices for reinforced concrete curbs at various points.

Will Print Reports.

The Finance Committee of the City Council gave its recommendation yesterday to the Council to appropriate $2245 for the purpose of publishing 10,000 copies of the report of the Aqueduct Investigating Committee. It also recommends that $306 be appropriated for printing the Mayor's annual message.

Who Pays the Premium?

The Finance Committee of the Council refused yesterday to make the recommendation that the city may pay the premium on the bonds of City Clerk, William H. Anderson, Treasurer Hance, and referred the subject to the Council, where it will be thrashed out today. Councilman Helkonki believes that the city should pay the premium, while Councilman Whitford declares that these men knew that they would have to give bonds when they took the office, they now pay the premium and that they should now pay the premiums without a squall.

Will Delay the Cut.

The Harbor Advisory Board decided yesterday that it would not be wise to adopt any plans for the cutting of a roadway through the sixty-foot bluff at First street, San Pedro, in order to make an approach to the First street wharf, until such time as the question of raising Nob Hill is finally disposed of. Meanwhile, the Harbor Commission is instructed to keep the foot at the wharf with money from the harbor revenue fund.

More Money is Wanted.

The Bureau of Street Assessments sent to the Board of Public Works yesterday a statement of the condition of the assessment and damage fund, showing that of the $50,000 provided in the fiscal budget there has been expended $46,131.94, while improvement proceedings pending and that will have to be taken care of before the close of the fiscal year will aggregate $18,416. The request is made that the Board of Public Works request the City Council to make a further appropriation for this bureau.

Must Hustle the Work.

Harbor Engineer Jubb reported to the Harbor Advisory Board yesterday that work is proceeding very slowly on the dredging and filling at the Huntington channel, and that while placing rock on the channel line has continued all the past week, it must now cease while the fill-silling is in progress. He stated that the contractors have been notified that they must increase their working force. The statement was made that this entire work will not be completed until about five months after the time limit in the contract, and that about three months of this extra time is due to the city itself causing delays by its controversies were in progress over proposed plans for improvement. Under the original provisions the work was to have been completed by March 29.

City Hall Brevities.

The Finance Committee decided yesterday to ask the Council to set a public hearing on the subject as to whether the city shall elect to operate under the provisions of the Rosebury empty-industry act.

The report of the City Tax and License Collector which will go to the Council today will recite that of the total of $4,810,015.44 charged to that office for collection as taxes and penalties, there has been collected and turned over to the City Treasurer the sum of $2,948,494.43, leaving uncollected $1,861,520.91.

Specifications for the bulkhead around the west side of the Mormon island channel were approved by the Harbor Advisory Board yesterday.

and sent to the Harbor Commission for its approval, after which they will go to the Board of Public Works. Mr. Moskowitz, chief engineer for the Los Angeles Harbor, has applied to the City Council to make amendments in Ordinance No. 15900 (new series) so that this concern may be used to keep certain lots of cable in fire-proof storage at its place of business, a site that it proposes to lease from the Salt Lake Railroad in the vicinity of Avenue 34.

GREAT FORTUNE STIRS FRACTIONS.

CONFIRMATION OF SALE OF BIG RANCH OPPOSED.

Two of thirty-nine heirs of late Mrs. Arcadia de Baker began litigation yesterday, which, it is believed, will be like fight for "Lucky" Baldwin Millions.

If two of the thirty-nine heirs of the late Mrs. Arcadia de Baker are successful in opposing confirmation of the sale of 3660 acres of the Laguna ranch there will be $4,205,000 additional for distribution instead of $2,102,500. R. A. Rowan & Co. alleges it held an option on the great tract of 3750 acres. Mrs. Helen T. Forster and Mrs. Joseph Thomas, nieces of Mrs. De Baker, assert the ranch is worth $1500 an acre.

A galaxy of lawyers, representing the Rowan company and various heirs, were in the Probate Court yesterday in connection with the argument of the sale of 3660 acres of the Laguna ranch. On the motion of Oscar A. Trippel, agreed to by Attorneys Hunaker and Scott, Judge Rives continued the case until tomorrow morning at 10 o'clock.

This is one feature of the administration of the $7,500,000 estate. It is believed the litigation will be a battle fought over the millions left by the late E. J. (Lucky) Baldwin. A dozen prominent attorneys have been engaged to represent the claims of the various claimants. The heirs of Abel Stearns, the first husband of Mrs. De Baker, and the heirs of Judge McKimley, who contends the larger portion of Abel's estate was his separate property.

IN BIG FIGURES.

LAW SUIT LOOMS LARGE.

A sensational allegation is made in the suit filed yesterday by John Laquiere against the heirs of Pierre Agourou. Agourou died November 29 last of formaldehyde accidentally administered. Laquiere, alleging that he was a partner with Agourou, Juan J. Menendez and Maria Valenzuela de Menendez with the view of acquiring property to the value of $1,000,000, states that on belief and information the defendants for four days previous to Agourou's death "wrongfully, willfully, unlawfully and against his will" caused the death of Pierre Agourou and deprived him of his liberty.

Owing to his alleged intimate and friendly relationship with Agourou, Laquiere alleges that the defendants are not entitled to inherit any portion of the $500,000 estate under the circumstances set out in the complaint.

Laquiere alleges that as Agourou's partner, and by reason of negligence and carelessness, and further by reason of the loss of his society to the partnership, together with the dissolution of the partnership by the defendants, he is damaged in the sum named.

Laquiere brings the suit and will try it in person, although he is not an attorney. Recently he was appointed administrator of Agourou's estate, alleging he was a partner in the business. He denied the petition and appointed the widow. He interrupted former Gov. Gage, attorney for the estate, in a forcible and picturesque manner.

WHY HE'S ABSENT.

TALE OF BROKEN WRIST.

Judge York and Clerk Cole of Department Five were discussing the fine points of automobiles last Friday. Both own machines. Cole, smiling knowingly when Judge York suggested he had better take out an accident policy.

"You never can tell," he said, "when the crank is going to let go and break your arm. Mine has been broken twice."

"I am pretty lucky," replied Cole. "If you are careful there is no danger."

Cole failed to report for duty yesterday. Word was sent in that he had broken his left wrist while running the motor of a car.
